

BLACKHAM TO SPEAK AT CRAIN'S CLEVELAND POWER BREAKFAST

Mar 6, 2026 | Firm News

Roetzel & Andress Chairman Robert E. Blackham will participate at Crain's Cleveland Power Breakfast, "The State of Law: Insights From Law Firm Leaders," on March 25. He will join a panel of industry leaders to discuss how law firms are evolving and what these changes mean for businesses.

Blackham and the other panelists will examine how firm leadership is adapting for long-term success and share strategies for helping businesses stay ahead in a rapidly changing legal landscape.

To learn more and register, click here.

Blackham leads the firm while maintaining an active employer-side employment law practice. He advises business owners and executives on complex workplace issues and has been with Roetzel for more than 30 year and has served as Chairman since 2017.

