

PATRICK HEALY NAMED SHAREHOLDER-IN-CHARGE OF CINCINNATI OFFICE

Apr 23, 2026 | Firm News

Roetzel & Andress has named Patrick B. Healy as shareholder-in-charge of the firm's Cincinnati office.

Healy, a member of the firm's Products and Transportation Group, joined Roetzel in 2020. He focuses his practice on complex civil litigation involving catastrophic injury and high-exposure claims. He represents transportation companies, including a national ride-sharing company, as well as physicians and health care providers, insurance companies, and manufacturers.

"Patrick is a talented litigator who brings a strong combination of experience and perspective that position him well to lead the Cincinnati office and support its continued growth," said Robert E. Blackham, Chairman of Roetzel & Andress.

Healy is admitted to practice in Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana. He has also earned the designation of Certified Litigation Management Professional from the Claim and Litigation Management Alliance.

Healy earned his J.D. from Northern Kentucky University Salmon P. Chase College of Law and his B.A. from DePauw University.
