

Roetzel's Ericka Adler Recognized as a "Go-To Thought Leader" by National Law Review

CHICAGO (December 29, 2021) — Ericka L. Adler, a shareholder at the law firm of Roetzel & Andress, and Practice Group Manager of the Health Care Group, has been named a National Law Review 2021 "Go-To Thought Leader" for her podcasts regarding different facets of healthcare regulation, in particular for providers.

"I am honored to have been recognized by the National Law Review," said Adler. "I am passionate about addressing the issues that challenge healthcare providers in this country and I am gratified that our podcast has had a meaningful impact. We look forward to tackling new and valuable topics in the year to come."

Each year, the National Law Review recognizes less than 1% of its authors with "Go-To Thought Leadership" awards. In 2021, the National Law Review has awarded 87 awards from over 14,000 contributed pieces of thought leadership received.
