

Roetzel & Andress Announces the Election of Two New Shareholders

AKRON, Ohio (January 3, 2022) — Roetzel & Andress is proud to announce that Morris L. Hawk and Jessica Sanderson from its Cleveland office have been promoted to shareholders, which became effective January 1, 2022.

“We are proud of the accomplishments and hard work of our newest shareholders,” said Roetzel Chairman Bob Blackham. “Morris and Jessica have served our clients with great distinction and have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to our firm values and collaborative culture. I am confident they will continue to contribute to the continued growth and success of our clients and firm.”

Morris is a member of the Employment Services Group. He focuses his practice on helping employers successfully navigate all legal aspects of the employment relationship. He advises employers on complying with federal and state employment laws and employee benefits law. He represents employers in traditional labor relations law before the National Labor Relations Board; in collective bargaining (including arbitration); and in union avoidance. Morris also represents employers in workers’ compensation matters throughout Ohio.

Jessica is a member of the Medical Defense and Products & Transportation Groups. She focuses her practice on litigation, with an emphasis on medical and professional liability defense, transportation/trucking, and general liability defense. Jessica defends companies, individuals, and professionals in a wide array of litigated matters, including wrongful death claims and claims involving catastrophic loss.

About Roetzel

Roetzel is a full-service law firm with offices located throughout Ohio and Florida, and in Chicago. The firm provides comprehensive legal services to national and international corporations, closely held and family-run businesses, institutions, organizations, and individuals. For more information, visit www.ralaw.com.