Roetzel Attorney Christopher D. Donovan Earns Bar Certification in Appellate Practice

Roetzel is pleased to announce that Christopher D. Donovan has recently been certified in Appellate Practice by the Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization.

"This is a very special distinction as there are very few in the state with this certification," said Robert G. Menzies, Roetzel's Practice Group Manager for Business Litigation. "Chris has worked very hard and very diligently to secure this, and to do so at such an early stage in his practice is significant as well."

Mr. Donovan's practice focuses on appellate and original jurisdiction proceedings in both state and federal court. His diverse appellate background includes local-government and administrative appeals, property and contract disputes, family-law appeals, and foreclosure-related appeals. He represents a wide range of industries, including lending institutions, real-estate developers, community associations and the government and public sector.

Mr. Donovan earned both his J.D. and B.A. from Stetson University, and he was previously a staff attorney for Florida's Second District Court of Appeal.
