

Roetzel & Andress Announces Emily Anglewicz as Shareholder-in-Charge of Associates

AKRON, Ohio (February 26, 2024) — Roetzel & Andress is pleased to announce that Emily K. Anglewicz has been named the new Shareholder-in-Charge of Associates.

“We are thrilled to have Emily leading our associates,” said Robert E. Blackham, Chairman of Roetzel & Andress. “Her commitment to mentoring and developing young attorneys, combined with her extensive legal experience, makes her the ideal candidate for this role. Emily’s dedication to associate retention and skills development will further strengthen our firm and enable us to provide exceptional legal services to our clients.”

Anglewicz joined Roetzel in 2019 and has made significant contributions to the firm during her tenure. Over the course of her 15-year legal career, she has shown a strong passion for mentoring and training new attorneys, both within the firm and through various programs sponsored by bar associations and non-profit organizations.

“I am incredibly honored to be given this new opportunity with the firm,” said Anglewicz. “I am excited to lead our associates and continue fostering a supportive and engaging environment for their professional growth and development.”

Anglewicz will focus on enhancing associate retention levels and strengthening skills-training and mentorship programs across all practice groups. She aims to create a supportive and engaging environment for associates, fostering their professional growth and development.
