Roetzel Partner Paul A. Giordano Speaks to Southwest Florida Bankruptcy Professionals

Roetzel attorney Paul A. Giordano, a partner in the firm's Fort Myers office, presented a bankruptcy case law update at a meeting of the Southwest Florida Bankruptcy Professionals Association (SWFBPA) on June 19, 2014 at the Federal Courthouse in Fort Myers. The update focused primarily on recent bankruptcy decisions from the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court.

The SWFBPA is a voluntary group of attorneys, judges, paralegals, and other interested members. The group meets and communicates on a regular basis, with the goals of keeping the members informed of current issues, and raising new ideas to streamline the bankruptcy process for the court, the attorneys, and their clients.

Mr. Giordano, the current Vice President and past Secretary of the SWFBPA, handles a variety of business and commercial litigation, with a special focus on bankruptcy and creditors' rights, partnership disputes, commercial foreclosures, contract and corporate disputes, and general and professional liability lawsuits. He also has experience in insurance coverage litigation, and jury and non-jury trial practice. Mr. Giordano earned his J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of Florida.
