Roetzel's Beverly Grady Addresses the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association at Annual Seminar

On July 26, 2014, Beverly Grady, Partner-in-Charge of Roetzel's Fort Myer's office, will speak at the 33rd annual seminar of the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association (FMAA) at the Hyatt Regency Coconut Point in Bonita Springs, Florida.

Ms. Grady will speak on the topic "Zoning in Progress" – a presentation on the authority of municipalities to apply newly enacted development requirements on pending development.

Board Certified in City, County & Local Government Law by The Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization, Ms. Grady focuses her practice on environmental, zoning and land use, administrative, governmental relations, permitting issues and real estate matters. Ms. Grady holds an AV® Preeminent™ rating from Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory and is named to The Best Lawyers in America ® for Zoning and Land Use, Real Estate Law, Litigation - Land Use and Zoning, and Government Relations Law for 2014.

About the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association

The FMAA was formally organized in 1981 and its current membership consists of over 600 attorneys who specialize in the legal representation of municipalities. These members include full-time and part-time city attorneys and their assistant city attorneys as well as attorneys who engage in private practice and who render specialized legal representation to municipalities (e.g. labor lawyers, bond attorneys, civil rights attorneys, and environmental and land-use attorneys).
