

Beverly Grady Speaks at the APA Florida 2013 Annual Conference

On September 13, Beverly Grady, Partner-in-Charge of Roetzel's Fort Myer's office, will address a session at the American Planning Association — Florida Chapter's 2013 Annual Conference ("APA"). The conference is scheduled for September 10-13, 2013 at the Rosen Center Hotel in Orlando, Florida.

Ms. Grady will be a presenter of the topic entitled, "Ethical Implications in the Information/Technological Age," along with co-presenter James G. LaRue of LaRue Planning & Management Services, Inc.

Board Certified in City, County & Local Government Law by The Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization, Ms. Grady focuses her practice on environmental, zoning and land use, administrative, governmental relations, permitting issues and real estate matters. Ms. Grady holds an AV® Preeminent™ rating from Martindale-Hubble Law Directory and is named to The Best Lawyers in America® for Zoning and Land Use, Real Estate Law, and Government Relations Law for 2013.

About the American Planning Association

The American Planning Association and its professional institute, the American Institute of Certified Planners, are organized to advance the art and science of planning and to foster the activity of planning -- physical, economic, and social -- at the local, regional, state, and national levels. The objective of the Association is to encourage planning that will contribute to public well-being by developing communities and environments that meet the needs of people and of society more effectively.

About Roetzel

Roetzel is a full-service law firm with more than 220 attorneys in offices located throughout Ohio and Florida and in Chicago, New York and Washington, D.C. The firm provides comprehensive legal services to national and international corporations, closely held and family-run businesses, institutions, organizations and individuals. For more information, visit ralaw.com.