

PRESS RELEASE

7/23/13

Roetzel Attorney Beverly Grady Speaks to the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association

On July 26, 2013, Beverly Grady, Partner-in-Charge of Roetzel's Fort Myers office, will address the 32nd annual seminar of the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association (FMAA).

Ms. Grady will conduct a review of the current state of the law governing municipal comprehensive planning and an overview of the ideas emerging in the wake of recent changes to state law in a session entitled, "Concurrency and Infrastructure Capacity in the Wake of DCA's Demise."

Board Certified in City, County & Local Government Law by the Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization, Ms. Grady focuses her practice on environmental, zoning and land use, administrative, governmental relations, permitting issues, and real estate matters. Ms. Grady holds an AV® Preeminent™ rating from Martindale-Hubble Law Directory and has been named to The Best Lawyers in America® for Zoning and Land Use, Real Estate Law, Government Relations Law and Litigation - Land Use and Zoning in 2013.

About the Florida Municipal Attorneys Association

The FMAA was formally organized in 1981 and its current membership consists of over 600 attorneys who specialize in the legal representation of municipalities. These members include full-time and part-time city attorneys and their assistant city attorneys as well as attorneys who engage in private practice and who render specialized legal representation to municipalities (e.g. labor lawyers, bond attorneys, civil rights attorneys, and environmental and land-use attorneys). For more information, visit fmaa.us.
