Roetzel & Andress Welcomes Philip S. Heebsh to Toledo Office Heebsh Joins Firm's Employment Services Team

Roetzel & Andress LPA today announced the addition of partner Philip S. Heebsh to the firm's Toledo office. Heebsh joins the firm's Employment Services Group. He was formerly a shareholder at the Toledo office of Reminger Co., LPA.

"We are very pleased that Philip decided to bring his wealth of experience to our firm and to the Toledo office," said Denise M. Hasbrook, Partner-in-Charge at Roetzel's Toledo office. "We are sure that he will contribute significantly to our full-service employment team and greatly benefit our clients with the depth of his experience."

Mr. Heebsh joins a practiced team of employment law attorneys, experienced in advising and representing public and private companies, public sector entities, and nonprofit organizations across the entire spectrum of labor, employment, and human resource issues. The firm's attorneys are highly qualified in both judicial and administrative proceedings, with extensive experience representing local, national, and international clients before federal and state courts and agencies.

Mr. Heebsh's diverse legal practice encompasses the specialties of general liability, commercial transportation, insurance coverage, and workers' compensation defense. Mr. Heebsh has represented a variety of clients in state and Federal courts throughout Ohio and Michigan. He has also successfully argued cases before the Ohio Court of Claims and Ohio appellate courts. Further, Mr. Heebsh represents the interests of both state fund and self-insured employers in Ohio Workers' Compensation matters.

Having earned his B.A., cum laude, at the University of Toledo, Mr. Heebsh subsequently went on to acquire his J.D. at the University of Toledo College of Law. He is licensed to practice law in both Michigan and Ohio.
