

Roetzel & Andress Welcomes Amy S. Thibaut to its Fort Myers Office

FORT MYERS, Fla. (June 20, 2024) — Roetzel & Andress is excited to announce the addition of Amy S. Thibaut as an Of Counsel attorney in the firm’s Real Estate group in Fort Myers.

Thibaut will focus her practice in land use, environmental and real estate law. She has represented clients in various matters, including zoning cases, comprehensive plan amendments, environmental permitting, and real estate transactions.

Prior to her legal career, Thibaut held roles in finance and business development, providing her with a broad perspective on business and legal issues.

Thibaut is an active member of several professional associations, including the Lee County Bar Association, the Lee County Building Industry Association, and the Real Estate Investment Society. She has been appointed to the Lee County Land Development Code Advisory Committee and City of Fort Myers Building and Zoning Oversight Commission. She also contributes to the community through her involvement with nonprofit organizations including Pace Center for Girls, Hope Hospice, and Builders Care.

Thibaut was honored as one of Gulfshore Business Magazine’s “40 Under 40” in 2021.

Thibaut earned her J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center and her B.A. from The University of Texas at Austin.
