

Roetzel Welcomes Associate Marcus A. Pringle to its Cleveland Office

Roetzel is pleased to announce that Marcus A. Pringle has joined the firm's Cleveland office as an associate attorney. Mr. Pringle is a member of the firm's Employment Services Group where his areas of practice include employment law compliance, workplace health and safety, and workers' compensation. He has also provided legal counsel to local school districts in the areas of labor relations, school operations, contracts and general business.

"We are very pleased to have Marcus join us here in Cleveland," said Doug Spiker, Practice Group Manager for the firm's Employment Services Group. "He makes a great addition to our Employment Group and to the firm overall."

Mr. Pringle earned his J.D. from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, where he received Dean's List Honors and the CALI Award for Academic Excellence in Sports and the Law. While at Cleveland-Marshall, he was also a member of the College's Trial Advocacy Team, served as Director of Operations of the Sports Law Association and as Executive Assistant to the Great Lakes Sports and Entertainment Law Academy. Mr. Pringle earned his B.A., with honors, from The Pennsylvania State University.
