

Roetzel Attorney Robert D. Pritt Conducts Training Sessions on Florida Sunshine and Public Records Laws

On October 17-18, 2013, Roetzel & Andress partner Robert D. Pritt conducted a seminar for more than 100 attendees on Florida's Government-in-the-Sunshine Law and Public Records Law. Elected officials, staff and volunteers received instruction on the complexities and nuances of both laws, with an eye toward maintaining transparency in government actions.

Sponsored by the ManaSota League of Cities, the City of Sarasota and the John Scott Dailey Florida Institute of Government at the University of South Florida, the seminar was, "well attended with Mr. Pritt providing a very thorough approach to public records and sunshine laws," said ManaSota League of cities President Jack Duncan. "The presentation was timely, illuminating, and well-received by all attendees with ample time provided for questions."

Mr. Pritt, a partner at Roetzel's Fort Myers and Naples offices, focuses his practice in the areas of local government, land use and real estate law. He represents municipalities, special districts, private developers, and real estate investors. In addition to his other responsibilities, he currently serves as the city attorney for the City of Naples. Board Certified in City, County & Local Government Law by The Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization, Mr. Pritt is a frequent speaker on a variety of issues affecting the cities and counties of Florida. Mr. Pritt has been named to The Best Lawyers in America® for Land Use & Zoning Law (2010-2011); Litigation – Land Use & Zoning (2012-2014); Municipal Law (2010-2014); and Government Relations Practice (2012-2014).
