

Karen Adinolfi Named Vice President of Akron Area Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management

Akron, OH – October 12, 2016 – Roetzel is pleased to announce that Karen D. Adinolfi has been named as Vice President on the Board of Directors for the Akron Area Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management (“Akron Area SHRM”). Adinolfi, a partner in the Employment Services Practice Group at the firm’s Akron office, focuses her practice on labor and employment litigation, regulatory compliance, and union matters. She has represented her clients in matters such as discrimination, harassment, and retaliation litigation, wage and hour litigation, arbitration proceedings, and appeals and administrative proceedings before the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Ohio Civil Rights Commission, Unemployment Compensation Review Commission, and U.S. Department of Labor.

The Society for Human Resource Management (“SHRM”) is the world’s largest HR professional society, representing 285,000 members in more than 165 countries. For nearly seven decades, the Society has been the leading provider of resources serving the needs of HR professionals and advancing the practice of HR management. SHRM has more than 575 affiliated chapters within the United States and subsidiary offices in China, India, and United Arab Emirates. Akron Area SHRM is an affiliate of SHRM and is a local starting point for networking, information, professional development, and support for HR professionals.
