

Daniel G. Rohletter Joins Roetzel's Real Estate Practice Group

(Columbus, OH – October 19, 2016) – Roetzel is proud to announce that Daniel G. Rohletter has joined the Columbus office as a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Mr. Rohletter will be practicing business, general corporate, real estate, and commercial law. He will be representing businesses, financial institutions, and commercial real estate developers, in addition to focusing on financing transactions, creditors' rights actions, and general business matters.

"Dan's depth and broad experience in real estate and corporate law will be a tremendous asset to our clients throughout Ohio," said Melissa R. Hoeffel, Partner-in-Charge of the Roetzel Columbus office. "We are pleased to expand our successful real estate practice with an invaluable and knowledgeable attorney such as Dan."

Mr. Rohletter is rated as an AV[®] Preeminent[™] attorney with Martindale-Hubbell, and is a member of the Columbus Bar Association (Real Property Committee), the Ohio State Bar Association, and the Columbus Bar Foundation. He is also Past Chairman of the Columbus Bar Association Business Tax Committee. Daniel received his undergraduate degree from Capital University, magna cum laude, in accounting, in 1982, and he received his law degree from Capital University Law School in 1986.
