

Diana Feitl Elevated to Lead Roetzel's Public Law, Regulatory & Finance Group

CLEVELAND (May 30, 2024) — Roetzel is proud to announce the appointment of shareholder Diana Feitl as the new Practice Group Manager for the Public Law, Regulatory & Finance Group.

"I am honored to lead such a talented group of attorneys and look forward to driving our practice forward," said Feitl. "I am excited to continue building on the strong foundation laid by my predecessors and to work collaboratively with our team to deliver exceptional results for our clients."

Feitl started at Roetzel in 2015 as an associate, eventually rising to the position of shareholder in 2021. Her practice focuses on serving as corporate counsel for local businesses, advising public entities like school districts and public housing authorities, managing a diverse range of litigation matters, and representing entities across all government levels. Additionally, Feitl also holds the role of Vice President of Roetzel Consulting Solutions.

Feitl earned dual B.A.'s, cum laude, from American University in both Political Science and Interdisciplinary Studies and went on to hone her skills in Washington D.C. working for a member of Congress and a government relations firm representing clients before Congress and the Executive Branch. She then received her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law.

In addition to her professional achievements, Feitl is actively involved in the community, serving on the Bar Admission Committee of the CMBA and as a mentor with the Mentoring Alumni Program with Case Western University School of Law. She is also a graduate of the Cleveland Leadership Center's Civic Leadership Institute.
