

Roetzel & Andress Continues Growth; Adds Two Associates

AKRON, Ohio (February 15, 2021) — Roetzel continues its growth and expansion with the recent hiring of Krystina E. Garabis and Lindsay A. Casile. Ms. Garabis joins the Products/Transportation Group in the firm's Columbus office, while Ms. Casile is a member of the Business Litigation Group in Cleveland.

Ms. Casile focuses her practice on complex business and commercial litigation. She earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from The University of Akron School of Law where she served as a production editor of the Akron Law Review. Ms. Casile is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, Akron Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association.

Ms. Garabis focuses her practice in products, transportation, and toxic tort litigation. She defends clients in matters involving catastrophic injury, wrongful death, insurance coverage, and toxic torts. Her practice area is not exclusive to products and transportation and her diversified litigation experience allows her to assist clients in a wide range of legal issues.

A graduate of The Ohio State University's Moritz College of Law, Ms. Garabis also earned her M.A. in public policy from The Ohio State University John Glenn College of Public Affairs. She is a member of the Columbus Bar Association and the Hispanic National Bar Association.
