Speaker Bob Cupp has served as an elected official in all three branches of government and at both the local and state levels: as an Allen County commissioner, a four-term state senator, a court-of-appeals judge, and a justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. He presently serves as Speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, a position to which he has been elected twice.

In addition to his public service, Speaker Cupp engaged in the private practice of law in Lima for more than 25 years and has taught courses in leadership studies, judicial process, and state education policy at Ohio Northern University.

Since 2017, Speaker Cupp has worked with legislators, educators, and school financial officials, creating a group with an ambitious goal: to create an education funding system that is fair, rational and justifiable.
