

Lisa Lipman Named “Woman Lawyer of the Year” by Collier County Women’s Bar Association

NAPLES, Fla. (June 26, 2024)—Roetzel & Andress is proud to announce that attorney Lisa H. Lipman was named Woman Lawyer of the Year by Collier County Women’s Bar Association (CCWBA). The CCWBA Woman Lawyer of the Year is presented annually to a female lawyer who has excelled in her career, overcome stereotypes, and promoted the status of women in the legal profession in the state of Florida. Lipman was presented with the award during a luncheon today at Naples Hilton.

Lipman focuses her practice on estate and tax planning, estate administration, trust administration, and Florida domicile planning. Her clients include many national banks and other corporate fiduciaries requiring representation in matters involving estates and trusts. She also assists individual clients with all aspects of estate planning and family wealth transfers. She has been named as one of Naples Illustrated magazine’s “Top Lawyers” every year since 2020 and has been named to “The Best Lawyers in America” every year since 2021.

In addition to her professional practice, Lipman has served on the Board of Directors for Artis-Naples since 2017 and was previously a member (and past president) of the Board of Directors for the Naples International Film Festival. She has been actively involved with the Collier County Women’s Bar Association, serving as President from 2017-2018 and on the Executive Board from 2010-2019. She is also a member of the Estate Planning Council of Naples and the Collier County Bar Association.

The Collier County Women's Bar Association encourages the study of law and the contributions of women within the legal profession and judiciary, promotes improvement of the administration of justice and judicial standards, and works to improve the ongoing relations among members of the Bar, judiciary and public.
