

Roetzel & Andress Recognized in Chambers USA 2024 Guide

AKRON, Ohio (June 6, 2024)— Roetzel & Andress is proud to announce that three attorneys and one practice area have been recognized by Chambers & Partners in Chambers USA 2024.

Since 1990, Chambers has set the benchmark for excellence in the legal profession, renowned for its rigorous and objective research methodology. The rankings are determined through meticulous evaluation by a team of over 200 dedicated researchers, ensuring unparalleled accuracy and credibility. For an in-depth look at their methodology, please visit Chambers' methodology.

Roetzel's Environmental Law Group has achieved a Band 3 ranking in the Energy & Natural Resources practice area. Columbus shareholder Shane Farolino has been consistently recognized by Chambers as a "Leader in Their Field" since 2004 and continues to uphold this tradition with a prestigious Band 1 ranking. Equally notable, Akron shareholder and Practice Group Manager of Roetzel's Environmental Law group, Terrence S. Finn, has been a "Leader in Their Field" since 2006, earning a notable Band 2 ranking this year.

Additionally, Thomas L. Rosenberg, a shareholder in the firm's Business Litigation Group in Columbus, has earned the highest possible recognition with a Band 1 ranking for Ohio Construction. This marks his first time being ranked in Band 1. Rosenberg, acknowledged by Chambers since its inception of its U.S. rankings in 2003, is celebrated for his exemplary litigation skills in construction cases across Ohio and the Midwest, solidifying his reputation as an outstanding trial lawyer.
